TERMS OF SERVICE

Welcome to The Psychology Hub. Our terms of service and your rights and responsibilities in relation to information security, access and confidentiality as well as your obligations regarding fees, cancellations and the supports you receive.

INFORMATION SECURITY AND ACCESS

PERSONAL INFORMATION: All information obtained during your treatment is kept confidential and secure, except when:

- (1) It is subpoenaed by a court;
- (2) Failure to disclose the information would place you or another person at risk of harm; or
- (3) Your prior approval has been obtained to:
 - (a) provide a written report to another professional or agency—e.g. to a lawyer; or
 - (b) Discuss the material with another person—e.g. a parent or employer.

Therapists are at times required to provide progress reports to Participants and the NDIA. This progress report outlines plan objectives and goals and whether goals are being met. Health research using de-identified data may be undertaken by this practice, by funding bodies or by this practice's technology providers, which you consent to as a patient of this practice. A copy of our privacy policy can be given on request.

INFORMATION SECURITY AND ACCESS: In the course of treatment, personal information is collected to enable treatment. All notes taken in the course of treatment and all communications relating to treatment become a part of the patient's clinical records. Clinical records are stored electronically in the patient file on Halaxy, which you (or your nominated representative) consent to as patient of this practice. You have a general right to access the patient records (subject to some exceptions which mainly relate to privacy, health, or legal considerations) and a request must be made in writing. You have a right to amend your records and personal information if incorrect. We are required to keep patient personal information for 7 years.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES/RIGHTS

CONFIRMING APPOINTMENTS: We endeavour to confirm appointments via SMS or email. However, it remains your responsibility to be aware of the scheduled appointments.

TIME AND PUNCTUALITY: A consultation will usually last 60 minutes. If you are late, the consultation will usually still finish at the scheduled time.

CANCELLATION POLICY: Short-notice cancellations (less than 2 business days' notice) and no shows will result in a cancellation fee of 90% charged against the NDIS Plan (or credit/debit card on file if you are self-managed or you run out of NDIS funds). Our cancellation amount and period are determined by the most current NDIA Price Guides. The NDIA Price Guides change from time to time and as a user of our service you agree to such changes (e.g., If the NDIA put up/down the cancellation fee or time period for cancellation you agree to those changes). During COVID-19/Coronavirus the cancellation period is 10 business days and 100% of fees.

COMPLAINTS: You (or a family member, friend or advocate) can make a complaint to any of our staff members in person, phone, and email or in writing. A copy of our complaints procedure can be given on request and found on our website. You can also contact the NDIS Complaints Commissioner 1800 035 544 at anytime.

ADVOCATE: You can get an advocate (an independent person who will speak for you) if you need help saying what you want.

SERVICE/CONSULT FEES: For Self-Managed and Nominee Managed Funds Fees are payable at the time of your appointment. For all other funds invoices to be paid within 7 days. Payments accepted include cash, BPAY, automatic debit of funds via Halaxy using the debit/credit card you provided. Please note, if your NDIS plan does not have the required funds to pay for the service you agree that you will then be personally liable for charges.

CHANGES TO THIS AGREEMENT: Changes to this agreement can be made in writing and when both parties (The Psychology Hub and Yourself) agree to the changes.

EXIT PROCESS: You can end this agreement by giving us 4 weeks' notice. As part of the exit process we will offer you an exit interview, to complete a client satisfaction survey (which can also be found on our website), and/or a handover to another provider and/or treatment summary (if applicable).

SERVICE/CONSULT FEES

1. ALL PLANS (self, agency and plan managed): Our prices are determined by the Price Limit Set out in NDIS Price Guide. These Prices are subject to change (e.g., NDIA often changes them at the beginning of the financial year) and as a user of our service you agree to these changes (e.g., if the NDIA increase/decrease the fees we will match them and you agree those new fees will replace the fees stated below). During COVID-19/Coronavirus the fees below increase by 10%.
 - a. Improved Daily Living Skills and Assistance With Daily Life
 - i. Individual Counselling $156.15
 - ii. Assessment, Recommendation, Therapy And/Or Training $214.41
 - b. Improved Relationships-
 - i. Specialist Behavioural Intervention Support $214.41
 - ii. Behaviour Management Plan & Training in Behaviour Management Strategies $193.99

* As a user of our service you understand that in certain circumstances we are entitled to charge for expenses incurred in the provision of supports. These expenses include non-direct and non-face-to-face services including (but not limited to) Review Letters, Assessment/Progress/Treatment Reports, Support Plans, Behaviour Support Plans, Functional Assessments, Phone Calls, File Reviews, and the use of Psychometrics/Assessment tools. These may also include certain transport and travel costs. Travel claims are for up to 30 minutes of time against the appointment the therapist is travelling to. The therapist can also claim for return travel if your appointment is the final appointment in a day. These are charged at the hourly rate for the relevant support item in the NDIS Plan.
