

TERMS OF SERVICE

Welcome to The Psychology Hub Pty Ltd. Our terms of service and your rights and responsibilities in relation to information security and access

PERSONAL INFORMATION: All information obtained during treatment is kept confidential and secure, except when:

- (1) It is subpoenaed by a court;
- (2) Failure to disclose the information would place you (patient, participant, child) or another person at risk of harm; or
- (3) Your prior approval has been obtained to:
 - (a) provide a written report to another professional or agency—e.g. to a lawyer; or
 - (b) Discuss the material with another person—e.g. a parent, educator, health professional, employer, NDIA/NDIS, Workcover.

If you claim rebates from funding bodies- doctors and health practitioners may be required to provide summary reports to referring doctors, specialists and/or agencies regarding your progress. Therapists are at times required to provide progress reports to participants and the NDIA.

Health research using de-identified data may be undertaken by this practice, by funding bodies or by this practice's technology providers, which you consent to as a patient of this practice.

INFORMATION SECURITY AND ACCESS: In the course of treatment, personal information is collected to enable treatment. All notes taken in the course of treatment and all communications relating to treatment become a part of the patients clinical records. Clinical records are stored electronically in the patient file on Halaxy, which you consent to as a patient (or parent/carer/guardian) of this practice. You have a general right to access patient records (subject to some exceptions which mainly relate to privacy, health, child consent or legal considerations). Your request must be made in writing (*an administrative fee is applicable), after which your request will be discussed with you. We are required to store your personal information for 7 years after ceasing engagement with your treating practitioner, and up to age 25 years for a young person under the age of 18.

WHEN THE PATIENT/PARTICIPANT IS A CHILD:

Dear parent/caregiver/primary carer/legal guardian

Working with young people presents certain issues and legislation that therapists/practitioners must adhere to. The following clarifies where our role as a practitioner/therapist starts and ends. It also outlines our ethical and legal responsibilities with regards to working with young people.

A young person is defined as "someone under the age of 18years old". A client-parent (or parents) is "the person who engages the therapist to provide a service for a young person".

Whilst we do our best to communicate with the client-parent regarding the progress of the young person in counselling, we cannot disclose any personal information unless we gain consent from the client i.e. "the young person", or they are deemed too young to understand these terms, disclosure to the client parent can occur.

TIME AND PUNCTUALITY: A consultation (except assessments) will usually last 50-60 minutes. If you are late, the consultation will usually still finish at the scheduled time.

SERVICE/CONSULT FEES: Fees are payable either using automatic payments or at the end of the appointment. For NDIS Self-Managed and Nominee Managed Funds, fees are payable at the time of your appointment. submits the claim to Medicare in one click using Halaxy, and Medicare pays the rebate into your bank account. You can check what bank account the rebate is going into on your MyGov account.

COMPLAINTS: You can make a complaint to any of our staff members in person, phone and email or in writing. A copy of our complaints procedure can be given on request and found on our website too.
